

Barclay, Barbara
Artist Bio

Barbara is a professional New England artist who grew up in Massachusetts and now resides in New Hampshire. She enjoys the outdoors and spends much of her time painting a variety of subjects in Maine and other coastal areas. She studied at Montserrat College of Art and the Manchester Institute of Art – also studying and painting with well-known artists such as R.S. Jackson, v. Stacey, Carlton Plummer, Jan Kilburn, L. Stover, and Hagop Kelegian. These experiences have enabled Barbara to better express herself creatively in the Medias that she has come to enjoy working in: Pastels, Oil paintings, and Watercolors
