

DALE BLANK

A Massachusetts native now living in Gloucester, can often be found roving the shoreline with a camera. Cape Ann light imbues her landscapes and abstractions. Dale is a graduate of Brandeis University and a member of the Cambridge and Rockport Art Associations (both juried admission), the Rocky Neck Art Colony and Newburyport Art Association. Her award-winning photography has appeared in numerous associations' calendars and visitors' guides. She has received multiple awards for her photography. She has held solo shows and participated in juried shows and exhibitions.

Dale's work, including limited edition prints and cards and the annual Cape Ann Calendar, is sold at many venues on the North Shore including Rockport, Rockport Art Association, Toad Hall Bookstore, Gloucester, The Black Swan, The Bookstore of Gloucester, Common Crow, Willow Rest, Manchester-by-the-Sea and Beverly Farms.
