

Artist Bio
Jeffrey Briggs

Jeffrey Briggs received his B.A. From Tufts and his Diploma from the Boston Museum School of Fine Arts. His work has been featured in numerous national publications. His sculptures are prized by collectors throughout the country. Jeff and Lindley Briggs operate a sculptural design business, that has created work for many high-end companies such as Bloomingdale's, FAO Schwartz and Disneyland. Jeff is known best as creator of numerous custom carousels around the world. The Greenway Carousel in Boston, completed in 2013, features carousel characters such as lobsters, codfish, harbor seal and a host of other creatures from the land, sea and air. Jeff's personal work thematically explores his thoughts about man's complex and paradoxical relationship with animals which lead him to create a new collection of sculpted wall reliefs. His book – "Animal Allegories" – features a collection of 14 reliefs. Other works of Jeffrey's can be viewed at: www.briggssculpture.com.
