

JOCELYNE COSENTINO

Raised in Montreal, Cosentino has dabbled in creative endeavors all her life. After moving to the Newburyport area almost 17 years ago, she began watercolor painting. For the past thirteen years, she has painted with Beverly Mitchell. After two Plein Air trips with Doris Rice to France, painting has become a large part of her travel experience. In these travels, she also likes to sketch and take many photographs. Since exploring a giant fish market in Sydney, lunch became the inspiration for her new series of paintings.
