

GRACE DALY

Grace Daly, artist and designer, has spent over 30 years working in the graphic design field as an Art Director and Graphic Designer. She studied fine art and graphic design graduating with distinction from the Boston Museum School of Fine Arts and Northern Essex Community College. Throughout the years, Grace has kept up her interest and love of painting and drawing.

Grace paints weekly with a plein air group (Band of Brushes) and in good weather, travels to paint in local areas. She also continues to explore on going classes in watercolor, oils and pastels from local artists. She has traveled to paint in France and Italy. Her work is exhibited locally and is in private collections throughout the United States.

Grace is a member of the Seacoast Artist Association and the Newburyport Art Association. She enjoys exploring all forms of mediums; oil, pastel, watercolor, acrylic, pen & ink, photography and collage. Each medium offers unique challenges for expressing herself.
