

SARA DEMROW DENT

Sara Demrow Dent is a studio artist who has been writing and painting for over ten years. She received her BA from Syracuse University in Fine Arts and Filmmaking and completed her Masters Degree in Art History and quality studies at Christie's Education New York and London. Sara is also a gemologist in diamonds and colored stones. Sara has shown her work in New York, California and Massachusetts and is included in collections around the globe. She is an award winning, featured artist at the Newburyport Art Association and works out of her studio in West Newbury, MA. In the fall of 2009, Sara had the honor of winning Best in Show for the second time in three years in an NAA juried exhibition. She is represented by Chameleon Gallery in Newburyport.