

Karen Fitzgerald lives and works in Newburyport, Ma. Karen was an art teacher in the public schools for 28 years. Recently retired, she has been accepted for artist membership in The National Association of Women Artist Association, NY, the North Shore Art Association, Gloucester and as a photography member to the Rockport Art Association and Museum. One of her watercolors was accepted into the juried North East Watercolor Society International Exhibit 2016. Karen also had a watercolor accepted in the 120th Open Catharine Lorillard Wolfe Art Club, NY, this Dec. 2016. She primarily works in watercolor but also paints in oils and exhibits photography.