

AVERILL HAINES

I recently retired from a fulfilling and exciting career as Assistant Athletics Director and Compliance Coordinator at Boston University. Living in the coastal community of Newburyport, Massachusetts has given me more time to devote to exploring my creative talents. I am presently a member of the Newburyport Art Association and the Seacoast Art Association in Exeter, New Hampshire and show my work at the association shows, various area art shows, and by appointment in my studio in Newburyport, MA. Some of my oil paintings have been commissioned by individuals who have seen my juried artwork in area galleries or in the private collections of friends and family.

As you view my landscapes, I invite you to stroll with me in the meadow or along the sandy beach; stand on the dock to view the boats in the bay; experience the stalwart solitude of a lighthouse or observe the ebb and flow of a tidal marsh. Whatever you choose to do, I hope you will enjoy the simple pleasures of this shared experience.
