

MARGERY M. JENNINGS

A lifelong resident of New England, Margery Jennings has been an artist for over 30 years. Since the 1970s she has lived in the seacoast area of New Hampshire, Massachusetts and Southern Maine. She has practiced art in one form or another throughout her years as a graphic artist in the printing trade, becoming a full-time painter in 2001 and winning awards in regional and national juried events. In 2008 she joined the "Newburyport Ten" plein air painters for their annual show at the Newburyport Art Association. Margery is currently living and working out of her studio in Amesbury, Massachusetts.
