

Christine Molitor Johnson

---

Christine Molitor Johnson is a juried member of the National Association of Women Artists in New York, and the Florida and Massachusetts chapters, has been painting for over 22 years. She works in oils and enjoys capturing the nuances of nature and the luminosity of the landscapes, water, and skies that surround her. She strives for expressive and textured brushwork in her work. Christine is a member of the Newburyport Art Association, seArts, Concord Art Association and an Associate member of both the Northshore Arts Association and the Rockport Art Association. She is an exhibiting member of Newburyport's 'plein aire' group, the Band of Brushes.