

HELEN CONDON POWELL

Retired PBS event coordinator, fundraiser, clothing designer/manufacturer and humanities teacher, Helen Powell has been a member of the Newburyport Art Association for several years, serving as president. She is now Chair of the Fund Development Committee. She is affiliated with the New England Conservatory of Music/Board of Visitors, with the Harvard Graduate School of Education/Arts Advisory Council, where she obtained her M.A.T. in Art Education, and with the Speed Art Museum/National Board in Louisville, KY. She has studied with Minor White, Lisette Model, Scott Jackson, Pearl Racette, Connie Flavell and Edward Minchin.

Her first media were drawing and photography. To that she has added pastel and oil. Typical subject matter is golf course landscapes, house and garden scenes, floral still lifes and candid film portraits. She plays golf, violin, and billiards in her spare time.