

I am a visual artist whose interests span drawing, painting, photography and videography. My work focuses on the human form. As it has progressed there has been a shift towards the material itself, with the figure playing the role of an excuse to push paint or pixels around.

My work has been seen and sold at the following:

Newburyport Art Association; Firehouse Center for the Arts; Chameleon; Jules Place, Boston; Eclipse Gallery, Boston; Chicago Art Sources, Chicago; McCoy Gallery; Merrimack College, MA.
