

Daniel J. Shaw

Daniel J. Shaw, although initially trained as a portrait painter has, in recent years, enjoyed the special pleasure of painting en plein air. As a member of the Newburyport 10 painting group, he has recorded his impressions of many New England scenes, which have been accepted in numerous juried shows and his creations reside in many private collections throughout the US. His medium of choice is primarily oil, but he also works in watercolor and pastel. Dan was awarded "Best of Show" in the recent 2010 Spring Members' Juried Show at the Newburyport Art Association.
