

Jim Vaiknoras

Jim Vaiknoras has been telling the stories of New England for over 30 years. For most of that time he was a staff photographer for the Newburyport Daily News, and the Director of Photography for Newburyport Magazine. He has been published nationally and internationally in such publications as The Atlantic, the Wall Street Journal, The Los Angeles Times and the London Guardian. Self-taught, Jim bases his work on his natural story telling ability, embracing the concepts of patience, anticipation and empathy. "Every photograph is a three-way conversation." He sees photography as less of an art form and more of a way to see the world. "After working as a photojournalist for so long, I can't imagine doing it any other way."
