

Amy Vander Els

Amy Vander Els holds an M.Ed. in k-12 Art Education and a BA in Studio art from the University of New Hampshire. Amy began studying encaustic painting at Maine College of Art in 2014 and was an assistant at the Maine Coast Encaustic Workshop Retreat in Kennebunkport, ME. She taught visual and digital art and photography in Massachusetts, Italy, Hungary and the Cayman Islands before returning to the US in order to become a practicing artist and designer of jewelry and print out of her studio in Amesbury, MA. Her jewelry and print designs are sold in boutiques and gift shops throughout New England and her artwork is in personal collections nationally and internationally.