

MARY ANN VAROSKI

Fine Art

A life-long resident of Plum Island, MA, Mary Ann is a realist landscape painter and selects subjects in which she feels a personal connection. Her paintings reflect the inspiration of her environment and travels. “The ability to capture the emotion and visually communicate the experience of a place is the energy of my paintings.” Mary Ann is an exhibiting member of the Band of Brushes (plein air painters), and the Newburyport Art Association. Her works have been included in many juried shows throughout New England, and she is represented by Kaya, State Street, Newburyport, MA.
