

PETER ZOLTAI

Peter Zoltai became a Newburyport resident in 2003. He has enjoyed photographing the many wonderful sights that our town has to offer. His photos include many local scenes from all hours of the day and night. His work reflects the beauty, history, and tranquility of our coastal community. His award winning work has been displayed at Galleries in Minnesota, Montana, and Massachusetts. He has received awards from Essex Heritage, Jewell Towne Vineyards, and Newburyport Art Association this year. A collection of his photographs have recently been Seen in “The Joy is in the Journey” Solo Exhibit at the Provident Bank of Newburyport Art Association Laura Coombs Hills Gallery. Peter’s hometown photos are in the current Newburyport Guidebook as well as the Newburyport Chamber of Commerce website. Peter has also been involved in community activities, donating his time and photographs to the Newburyport Field of Honor and Yankee Homecoming for the past several years.
