

Kiki Taron Kinney
BIO

Kiki Taron Kinney creates hand-crafted jewelry specializing in metal smith techniques, wire weaving and lampworking. Her portfolio changes every year with the introduction of new concepts, ideas, and the application of advanced and innovative fabrication techniques. One-of-a-kind pieces come to life as pendants, earrings, necklaces, and bracelets.

Kiki has been creating jewelry since 1992, taking classes at Metalwerx, The DeCordova Museum and Timberwolf Glass Studio.

She has won many Outstanding Work Awards at The Marblehead Festival of Arts, Marblehead Arts Association and Newburyport Arts Association. Inspired by nature and a love of the ocean, many of Kiki's pieces have an aquatic theme.
