

Holly Anderson Popeo
BIO

I am an artist living on the Northshore. I primarily paint outside "en plein air" mostly painting woodland scenes and snow scenes. I am also an avid gardner and will often set up right in my backyard.

I went to Massachusetts College of Art and Design where I majored in Graphic Design. After working for many years as a graphic designer I left to follow my dream of painting full time.

I am on instagram as Holly Anderson Popeo
