

Kim Snyder

Hailing from New England, Kim Snyder is an accomplished painter and illustrator that fuses an eclectic range of influences into a style defined by strong mark making, intricate color arrangements and experimentation. She delivers powerful visual art, marked by a dynamic spectrum of style, emotion, and feel. Kim can be found studying drawing and making work regularly around Boston's North Shore as well as across New England and the Mid Atlantic (Philly area). In addition to her collection of oil and acrylic paintings, Kim released a series of Vintage Audio ink drawings in late 2018. More vintage audio and ink work is set to be unveiled in 2019 and 2020.

Kim is also an accomplished musician actively writing and performing. Her live performance career started in 1999 and has taken her from iconic fixtures like New York's CBGB, Boston's Lizard Lounge and Philly's Grape Room, to the intimate listening rooms of The Grog, Evolver Radio, Newburyport Brewing Co. and Riverwalk Brewery in Newburyport, MA. She has also had the privilege of playing Main Stage at a number of regional festivals, such as the Yankee Homecoming (Newburyport, MA) PlumFest (Newbury, MA) and MusicFest (South Acworth, NH).
